

Javawolf Hoopers RULEBOOK

2025

Our ethos:

“Be kind and give people and dogs
the space they need”

This is our primary goal; we want the shows and workshops to be fun for everyone.

To ensure this happens we need to have some rules which everyone must follow.
Please speak to us if you will struggle to follow these and we will advise you and try to help.

By entering and attending our events you agree to these rules and sign up to our ethos.

Section 1: Entering and attending

- 1.1 By entering our events, you agree to the rules in this rule book and any competition rules in the event schedule.

- 1.3 We may use timeslots to allow us to manage the space at the event. You must attend the timeslot allocated to you, and if you miss this timeslot, we may not be able to allow you entry to the event.
 - a. We will inform you of your timeslot before the event by e-mail. Please check you junk mail. The slot will be within the times advertised in the schedule.
 - b. If you would prefer a particular slot, please let us know, but we cannot guarantee this will be the slot you are allocated.
- 1.4 Your space at the show is not reserved until you complete your entry on our website and have paid. We do not accept pay on the day unless we state otherwise.
- 1.5 We reserve the right to close entries to an event at any time and for any reason.
- 1.6 If we cancel the event before the closing date, we will offer a full refund.
- 1.7 If you wish to cancel your entry before the closing date you can and will have the fees credited to your Javawolf account in full.
 - a. You can use this credit toward a future event.
 - b. You can also request a refund to the payment type you use to make the payment. We will deduct a processing fee of 10% from this refund. Please contact us to request this.

- 1.8 If we must cancel a show after the closing date due to dangerous weather conditions or another event outside of our control, we will roll your entry to a future event automatically within one calendar month of the day of the show. We will contact you via e-mail in the event of a late cancellation.

Section 2: On the day and around the event

- 2.1 Please arrive as close as you can to the start of the event or your timeslot. We will send an e-mail before the event to let you know the time you should arrive.
- 2.2 When arriving please park where asked. This is to allow use to manage the space within the confines of the weather and condition of the ground. If you have special requirements then please speak to one of the helpers and we will try to accommodate the request.
- 2.3 Please stick to a maximum speed limit of 5mph on site and give priority to pedestrians/dogs. Beware of the possibility of a loose dog.
- 2.4 If the event ground is gated, please ensure it is closed once you have passed through. If there is no-one on the gate to advise you on where to park, please visit the event office to ask where you should park.

- 2.11 If you are late for the start or your runs then you may not be able to complete them, we will try and accommodate you, but this might not be possible.
- 2.12 If your dog is nervous or does not like other dogs, then please register it as yellow. This will allow others to know it needs extra space. Yellow dogs must be identifiable with a yellow collar/lead/harness or coat.
- 2.13 No person shall carry out punitive correction or harsh handling of a dog at any time.
- 2.14 If a dog observed to be in distress for any reason, we may remove it from the competition and ask that it is removed from site. No refund of entry fees will be considered.
